

Membership Form for Ordinary Members

Welcome to Respect Inc.
We Are Sex Workers
United for Sex Worker
Rights.

To be an Ordinary Member you must be a current or past Queensland sex worker. Being a member entitles you to voting rights at the Annual General Meeting where we elect our Governance Committee. You can also nominate yourself to sit on this Committee. The AGM is usually held in October or November each year. Dates and details will be forwarded via email prior. Membership also entitles you to apply to become involved as a volunteer at any of our offices and a discount on safer sex supplies. Members are also consulted when we review our programs and in our strategic planning.

Your information is kept confidential within the Respect Inc Governance Committee and staff. Please only provide details (e.g. email, phone number postal address) that are safe for us to contact you on, using the name you have given us. We recommend that you use a 'working' first and last name. We will use this contact information to keep you up to date about meetings, social events and to send you important information (ugly mugs, law changes etc.) so PLEASE let us know if your contact details change.

Your membership will be valid until cancellation by yourself or Respect Inc.
